

The Back to Basics Holiday Greetings for 2025

Back to Basics, How to Listen to God, and Back to the Basics of Recovery book sales continue to grow, both domestically and overseas, as many more Beginners' Meetings and Eleventh Step Guidance Meetings are established within various Twelve-step communities. We'd reached the point where getting books to the Post Office had become a problem, which Brit solved by arranging for a postal truck to come to the world headquarters (our garage) once a week to pick up the book orders.

All year, Wally and Brit have been busy with Zoom seminars and Speaking Engagements. Wally was the guest speaker for the Bisbee, Arizona, Speaker Meeting in April and the Fourteenth Anniversary Celebration of the Back to Basics Group in Moscow in June. In addition, they conducted the Four Spiritual Activities and Taking the Steps One Day at a Time workshops in May.

Wally rewrote the Back to the Basics of Recovery seminar so it could be presented in Russia (two hours in English and two hours in Russian). The seminars were presented on August 9-10, October 18-19, and November 22-23. They were a total success.

In addition to our Russian translator, we now have a Danish translator as well. The Icelandic translation was completed and published in 2017. Some of the other translations are Spanish, French, German, Polish, Chinese, and Japanese.

Wally has been working on his spiritual autobiography for much of 2025. The book title is The Divine Presence. He has presently completed sixteen of the twenty-three chapters. He anticipates that the book will be ready for publication in February 2026. Brit has been working hard in the office keeping everything moving. Also, she has gotten our YouTube channel up and running. Link for it is in the lower right corner.

At present, we do not have the funds to publish The Divine Presence book. All donations to publish this and other books in 2026 will be graciously accepted and are tax deductible.
