OBITUARIES

Ruth Starr

AGE 89, OF COLDWATER

COLDWATER — Ruth Starr, 89, of Coldwater, died Wednesday, June 1, 2011, at the Community Health Center of Branch County.

Services will be held on Friday, June 3, 2011 at 1 p.m. at Dutcher Funeral Home in Coldwater with Pastor David Anderson officiating. Visitation will be held prior to the service on Friday beginning at 11 a.m. at the funeral home. Interment of ashes will be at Riverside Cemetery in Union City.

Ruth was born Aug. 29, 1921 in Union City to Frank and Alma (Schaefer) Dowell. She married Konstant Aviza in 1938, then later married Curtis E. Starr on Aug. 15, 1963. He preceded her in death on March 9, 1998.

Mrs. Starr had worked as a waitress and receptionist at the former Arlington Hotel in Coldwater, the 105 Lounge and at Dual Tire in Union City. She spent many years in North Carolina and Florida, where she had worked at a hosiery mill and also at Disney World. Ruth and her husband Curtis came back to the Coldwater area in 1996. She loved animals and enjoyed interior decorating, Sudoku puzzles and watching Detroit Tigers baseball games.

Ruth is survived by her son David (Janean) Aviza of Coldwater, her grandchildren David Todd Aviza, Kevin Aviza, Pamela (Gary) Havens, step-grandsons Benjamin (Amy) Eby, Jacob (Lisa) Eby, great grandchildren Corey Aviza, Tiffany (Matthew) Lajoie, Andrew and Holly Beth Havens, step great grandchildren Owen, Isabelle, Piper, Gweneth and Jade Eby, great-great granddaughter Madison Lajoie, many special nieces, nephews and cousins including Linda Griffin, Judie Null, Sharon Marsh, Ralph Dowell Jr., Laura Laurie and LeMoyné Rice. In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by her brother Ralph Dowell, her sisters Hazel Brown, Bernice Barringer, Fern Krzeminski, Maxine Norton, her nephew Howard Norton and nieces Nancy Welch and Donna Latham.

Memorials may be directed to the Branch County Humane Society or CHC Home Health and Hospice. www.dutcherfh.com

Wanda Evelyn Snow

AGE 91, OF COLDWATER

COLDWATER — Wanda Evelyn Snow passed away peacefully on Monday, May 30, 2011 at Masonville House in Coldwater.

Wanda was born October 4, 1919 to Forrest and Pearl Imes Cooper in Alliance, Ohio. She grew up in rural Pennsylvania and Michigan. During World War II, she worked as a welder at Ronan and Kunzel in Marshall, and often recounted how much she enjoyed and took pride in being Wanda the Welder. On Sept. 30, 1944, she married Donald Snow in Coldwater. They were married 36 years, until Donald passed away in 1980. Together, they raised four children, and resided for their entire marriage in Girard.

A homemaker until 1955, Wanda then worked at the Coldwater Regional Center until her retirement in 1981. After her retirement, Wanda enjoyed travelling with friends and family, including trips to China, France, Italy, Turkey, Greece, the Bahamas, Alaska, and Hawaii. Wanda resided for the last four years at Masonville House in Coldwater, where she had many friends.

Throughout her life, Wanda enjoyed her family. Her children remember countless holiday meals hosted in her home, and Sunday family dinners were a weekly event. Wanda spent many years canning the produce from her husband's garden, and she taught her grandchildren and sons-in-law how to scale and clean the fish caught with Don. She is fondly remembered by her grandchildren for hosting many sleepovers. Wanda would peel and slice endless numbers of apples for her grandchildren to accompany bowls of popcorn, and she cooked countless pancakes in the mornings. She loved to bake chocolate chip cookies and enjoyed sending them home as care packages. Wanda also drove twice a year for many years to visit family in Arkansas, with her sister-in-law Audrey Wisman. Fortunately, Wanda was only ever stopped for speeding once, and the officer declined to fetch her purse from the back seat for her. Among other adventures not to be described here, Wanda also spent many evenings at various dance venues in southern Michigan with her life-long friend, Maxine Schillings.

Wanda was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Donald in 1980, her sister Cleo Mildred Lett, her daughter Donna Eikenberry in 2008, and grandsons James Clearwater and Levi Clearwater. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Forrest and Barbara Snow, daughters and sons-in-law MaryAnn and Tom Schaefer and Gail and Pieter Doerr. Grandchildren include Robin Curtis, Stacy Johnston, Eric Snow, Chad Schaefer, Tom (Rosemary) Schaefer, Sarah (Bob) Petrie, Jessika (Dennis) Cole, Heath (Mindy) Doerr, David (Wendy) Eikenberry and Dan Eikenberry. Wanda enjoyed her sixteen great-grandchildren, as well as her niece, Nancy Vann.

A celebration of Wanda's life will take place on Saturday, June 18 at 4 p.m. at the H.C. Burnside Center.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial donations to the H.C. Burnside Center or the Commission on Aging. Arrangements have been cared for by Dutcher Funeral Home.

Brian D. Wyzkowski

AGE 52, OF COLDWATER

COLDWATER — Brian D. Wyzkowski, 52, of Coldwater, passed away Monday, May 30, 2011 at home.

Visitation is Wednesday, June 8, 2011 from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. at the George White Funeral Home, Quincy. A full obituary will follow in Monday's paper.

MAKING IT RIGHT

A cutline in Wednesday's story about the Area Best Track Meet should have stated that Coldwater's Becca Schott was a member of the first place 3200-meter relay team. We regret the error and any confusion it may have caused.
